

CORONADO

Coronado, March 24.—A party arranged to visit the light house and Ponce Park by Miss Marrot. They engaged Mr. Moeller to take them over in his launch, arriving there in the forenoon; the attendant informed them that visitors could not ascend the lighthouse until 1:00 p. m., as the government had made new rules. The party returned after a short stay, sorely disappointed.

Mr. Frank Vrooman is having a laundry built on his lot next to the post office.

Mr. Town arrived from Sorrento and is staying at the Atlantic house and taking his meals at Mrs. Warren's.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Bishop arrived from Lake Helen Saturday and have rooms at Mrs. Miller's. Their many friends were glad to see them, as it has been two years since they were here last.

Saturday night, at the Atlantic house, there was a most delightful musical, the proceeds to go toward the organ fund for our church. Mrs. J. Solsby very kindly arranged the program. Mr. Fielder and wife and some of their pupils from New Smyrna certainly did most splendidly. Every number was done for a few days and was grading his new lot on Inlet avenue. We like to see these improvements going on.

The sale, or non-sale, of the corner lot between Frank Vrooman's and Lawyer, Mr. Ross acting agent, has been settled to the satisfaction of all parties concerned. Mr. Vrooman has withdrawn, and the sale is off.

Mrs. Morrison Lewis, from New Smyrna, was a pleasant caller among friends here last Friday. We want her to come again soon.

Tuesday brought over three hack loads of people from Lake Helen. Some located on the beach and others located in the Longstreet cottage.

The first meeting of the Priscilla Club has been called for Friday, March 26th, at the home of Mrs. Florence Goodwin. New officers will be elected for the coming season and other business attended to. Every member is requested to be present. Refreshments will be served.

Over twenty people went up to Daytona in Mr. Moeller's launch on Wednesday to see the races. Every day now large parties go, and the boats are doing a good business.

ers or sisters?"

"One sister and two brothers," was the answer. "John went out into the mining country when he was seventy-two; got into trouble there called a drunken man a liar and was shot. Henry was drowned at sixty-nine, trying to help save two young fellows that could not swim. Sister's alive. She's awfully careless; ate a lot of green stuff the day of her golden wedding, then danced in the evening with all the old fellows out on the lawn, even after it was raining; took her two days to get over it. She'll go in a hurry like all the rest some of these times."

"Well," said the medical gentleman, smiling, "I think I'll chance you, and don't believe your application will be 'turned down' at the home office. Only you must look out for yourself. Be careful about catching hard colds after you are eighty years old."—Chicago Post

AFRAID HE WOULDN'T PASS.

He was a man well along in middle age and was willing to be insured. The agent had prepared his "application" and turned him over to the searching scrutiny of the accomplished medical examiner.

"I might as well tell you, doctor, right to begin with, that ours has been a family of fatalities and sudden deaths," said the applicant.

The examiner looked serious as he replied: "Why you seem to be in excellent physical condition. What did your father die of?"

"Heart disease."

"That's bad. How old was he?"

"Ninety-two."

"Um! And your mother?"

"She's gone, too; killed at a railroad crossing."

"And her age?"

"Mother was a little over seventy-nine."

"Do you know the age and cause of both your grandfathers' deaths?" continued the examiner.

"Yes, indeed. Father's father died just a week after his ninetieth birthday. Mother's father was only eighty-eight. Falling down stairs finished him."

"And your grandmothers?"

"One of 'em had consumption at eighty-six and died of it in no time. The other was nipped by sunstroke at eighty-four. Oh, they all went quick!"

The examiner did not seem quite so grave as he asked, "Have you any brothers or sisters?"

Mr. Clement and Mr. Wright, from Mt. Dora, visited Mr. Van-Cleef's family this week. Mr. Wright went on to Daytona to attend the auto races; Mr. Clement returned to Mt. Dora, where their families are spending some time.

Mr. Waterman's nephew left last week for his home in New York State, after spending some time here with his uncle and his sister.

Rev. McDonald and wife expect to go north this summer and the church here will be left without a pastor until they can find someone who is willing to take it for the congregation will be small if all leave who talk of going away to spend the summer. We hope some one will come and keep up regular services.

Mrs. J. B. Conrad is entertaining a young lady friend from the north.

Mr. H. S. Andres has a new horse this week. He changes horses oftener than anyone in this section.

Robert Bly and Miss Ethel Sproul attended Christian Endeavor at the church here Sunday night, from DeLand.

All the talk about the tremendous amount of labor put into the tariff bill as presented to the house by Chairman Payne is bosh. The committee took the present tariff law and read proof on it, marking such few changes as were thought necessary. The house will pass it substantially as presented, and then Senator Aldrich will read proof on it once more and the senate will adopt it as corrected. Then the two houses will confer by committee and a revised proof will be marked O. K. by both houses and it will be the law.—Tampa Times.

P. P. P. Cures
Rheumatism

Read what Nicholas Lang, the largest retail grocer in Savannah says about P. P. P.

F. V. LIPPMAN, Savannah, Ga.,

Dear Sir:—

For many years I consumed much medicine, and in fact tried every means in my power to get cured of that terrible disease, rheumatism, which had undermined my health. I visited Hot Springs, Ark., without gaining relief, and at last in sheer desperation I took P. P. P. (Lippman's great remedy), and was in a short time entirely cured. In the eight years since that time I have not had a symptom of rheumatism.

P. P. P. did the work to my entire satisfaction and made a quick and permanent cure.

Yours truly,

Nicholas Lang.
